

Contributors	Edited By	Last Modified Date
Vikas	Vaishnavi	08/10/2022

General rules for attending meeting

1. Whenever you attend any Meeting or Training, you must carry your notepad with you.
2. Be attentive
You must pay attention in the meeting, even if the call has been recorded.
Try to avoid the following habits:
 - a. Tapping pens
 - b. Fidgeting
 - c. Swivelling your chair side to side
 - d. Tapping your feet
 - e. Scribbling on papers
3. Ask questions at the appropriate time If you miss any point, feel free to stop the meeting and ask question if you have not understood. One can repeat as many times you want the point to be explained again.
4. After meeting, if you don't have any doubt, you must tell that you have understood, and you must send email for the same.
5. One must make use of the meetings and be productive.
6. You can create the shortcuts of the folder which are important and most usable and keep it on the desktop for your use.
Be punctual
7. Being on time for meetings shows maturity, professionalism and courtesy to the rest of the meeting attendees
8. Speak loud enough
When you speak during the meeting make sure to speak loudly and clearly so everyone can hear you. This portrays confidence and makes you look more professional.
9. Actively listen and participate practice active listening by nodding or paraphrasing what the other person is saying to show understanding, active listening helps you stay focused
10. Put away technology
Turn off or silence your device, then put it away where it is no longer visible,